CAMILO R. WILLIAMS
(631) 352-9716 | camiloramwill@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE: Devoted student with excellent leadership, technical and analytical skills. Looking to be admitted into Central Washington University's Construction Management program in order to obtain a Bachelor's of Science degree; and gain vast expertise in management and field operations.

EDUCATION:

Central Washington University – Ellensburg, WA	Current Education
Green River College – Auburn, WA	Winter 2015 to Fall 2016
U.S Marine Corps – Camp Pendleton, CA	Summer 2006 to Fall 2014
Connetquot High School – Bohemia, NY	Graduation Date: June 2006

RELATED COURSEWORK:

Construction Health and Safety, Plane Surveying, Intro to Business, Computer Science, Business Law, Small Group Communication, Interpersonal Communication, Geology, Physics, Management of Human Resources, Leadership and Supervision.

RELATED EXPERIENCE:

M SEVIGNY COSNTRUCTION INC (Field labor) Yakima, WA– June to September 2017

- Performed wide range of heavy labor, including framing, excavation, exterior piping, concrete pouring, hauling, as well as interior finishing, steel reinforcement and fitting work.
- Proficient with hand and power tools to include core drills, air compressors, saws, chisels, squares, carpenter levels, and jumping jack rammers.
- Demoed and prepared construction sites and assisted skilled workers in surveying and leveling to complete new building projects.
- Operated heavy machinery such as the backhoe, skid steer loader, smooth wheeled roller, as needed to perform assigned tasks.

U.S MARINE CORPS (Management)

Platoon Sergeant/Commander (Sergeant E-5) Camp Pendleton, CA– 03/2010 to 09/2014

- Provided leadership, instruction, including evaluation and discipline and supervision of 25 personnel; resulted in a 30% decrease in staff turnover and a 10% increase in promotions.
- Supervised $100 million of gear and equipment, efforts led to a zero loss in a 4-year period.
- Built bunkers, fortified fighting positions, command of operations stations and watchtowers in order to be combat effective.

Human Resource/Administrative Specialist (Corporal/E-4) Camp Pendleton, CA– 08/2006 to 03/2010

- Supervised ten Marines in providing support and assistance to 1,500 of active duty Marines.
- Organized deploying unit's service record books and ensure all accurate information was updated rapidly, with an average of 500 Marines per unit.
- Expertly managed all pay entitlements and training updates for over 1500 Marines with a 95% timeliness management report.